Part 11 – Endings and New Beginnings

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven: A time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away. – Solomon @ Ecclesiastes 3

The Israelites Journey

Numbers 27

As the Israelites move closer to their entry into the Promised Land the Lord leads them through the transition of Moses' death. He handles it with humility and grace. The Israelites seem to at first, but some of their foolishness rears its ugly head sooner than later.

Philippians 3:13-14; II Corinthians 4:7-12

- *We embrace endings, recognizing they are a type of death or loss
- *We recognize that the waiting of the 'in-between' is longer than we'd like
- *We view life's transitions as inextricably linked to our maturity
- *We affirm endings and waiting are gateways to new beginnings

II Corinthians 5:17
