Warren Barfield – You Inspire Me

*Hear the roar of the ocean
Feel the waves at my feet
I'm looking over my shoulder
At the mountain peaks
There's a bird that is whistling
What a wonderful world
And I am so amazed
I have to sing your praise*

*Cause you
You inspire me yeah
I see your reflection in everything (everything)
You're moving me
Like a melody whoa
You inspire me
Yeah*

*Well the driving rain
Sets the beat
The wind is howling a harmony
The clouds roll away
The sun shines a chorus
Your creation sings the words
To songs I've never heard*

*I want to live a life with passion
That always points to you
Share a love that is reckless and untamed
Cause You've sketched the world in wonder
And you draw it out of me
The Heavens declare your glory
And I want to do the same yeah, yeah
Oh Lord, help me do the same*
